

Life Energy

Chorus Theatre Group, in association with Gujarat Energy Development Agency, Gandhinagar, recently performed an educational play in different schools across Ahmedabad and Gujarat. With a message of saving energy – urja – the play will be performed again in the last week of November and early December at different venues.

